

Damascus Heritage Society Tea February 20, 2010

The first annual Heritage Society Tea was held on Saturday, February 20, 2010 in the Senior Center dining room. We had 58 guests and many Heritage Society members helping to serve and keep the tea flowing. It was a wonderful day and a good time was had by all. We thank Tony Edghill, the Director of the Senior Center, for allowing us the use of the dining room, and we thank our own Daria King for getting us all organized and working. Good job, Daria. If you missed it, please enjoy a few pictures from today and then plan to attend next year.

Speaker Dolly Yates regales us with stories from her book about tea.

Rev. Frances Stewart, who gave the invocation, Nathan Orem, and Mrs. Eleanor Stipe are enjoying the homemade scones.

Speaker Ellen Salins tells us about her tea pot collection that has been in her family for 4 generations.

Marjorie Green, Jane Snapp, JoAnne Kessler, and Mary Richards are patiently waiting for the next course to arrive.

Some of the guests enjoying tea - we sure thank everyone for joining us today.
